CORRECTION: Frontpage Article “OC Supervisors Race: Three Remain” Was In Error

The article “OC Supervisors Race: Three Remain” had several severe errors.

The article said that candidates Harry Sidhu; Rose Espinoza; Richard Faher; and Tom Daly had dropped out of the race. The only candidate who dropped out was Tom Daly, who will be running for his current position as Orange County Clerk.

Six candidates are still in the race including Harry Sidhu; Rose Espinoza; Richard Faher; Art Brown; Lorri Galloway; and Shawn Nelson.

The up-coming June 8, 2010 election will fill the 4th District seat vacated by Chris Norby (who was elected to the state Assembly in Jan 2010).

If a candidate wins 50+1 votes that person will hold the seat through Jan. 2011 and then be sworn in for a full 4-year term. If no one wins 50+1 votes the candidate with the highest votes will take the seat until the runoff.
